DEFENDANTS

ORDER

1. Magistrate Judge Ray granted Collins leave to proceed in forma pauperis. No 6. The Court must now screen Collins's substituted complaint. No 7; 28 U.S.C. § 1915A. Collins, who is an atheist, claims that Watson, Starks, Thomas, and Potter violated her rights under the Establishment Clause by forcing her to attend religious services. For screening purposes only, the Court concludes that Collins has stated a plausible § 1983 claim. Munson v. Norris, 435 F.3d 877, 880 (8th Cir. 2006).

2. The Clerk is directed to prepare summons for Watson, Starks, Thomas, and Potter, and the U.S. Marshal must serve the summons, substituted complaint, and this Order on each of them without prepayment of fees and costs or security.

3. Collins hasn't pleaded any claims against Starr, Stennet, or Mayes. The Court therefore dismisses them without prejudice. An in forma pauperis appeal from this Order would not be taken in good faith. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3).

So Ordered.
